Governor Rauner is making extreme and harmful demands at the bargaining table that he knows state workers can't possibly agree to.

That's why AFSCME and other unions are supporting SB 1229, legislation that passed both houses of the legislature and was vetoed by the Governor. SB 1229 would allow unions representing state workers to rely on an independent arbitrator's decision if a contract settlement can't be reached at the bargaining table, preventing a strike or lockout that would shut down state government.

While SB 1229 provides a common-sense solution that prioritizes the services Illinois residents depend on and the rights of all of us who work every day, Governor Rauner vetoed the bill on July 29th.

And it will take a vote of 3/5 of each house of the General Assembly to override the veto and make SB 1229 the law of our state. To do that, your involvement is key.

If we are to override the veto, we need our legislators to stand with us!

Call your State Representative and State Senator
TODAY on the toll-free hotline 888-412-6570

with this message:

"I support Senate Bill 1229, which helps keep state government working and ensures fairness for state employees. I urge you to vote to override the Governor's veto."

Note: If you get voicemail, just leave a message. If voicemail is full, call back the very next day. Don't give up—there's too much at stake.

After you've made the call, sign and return this form to your local union.
